

WAHSA supply two delegates to working group for Roof work

Monday, 12 June 2006

The Work at Height Safety Association (WAHSA) is pleased to supply two delegates on a new working group set up by the Advisory Committee for Roof work (ACR). The new group will prepare new guidance on safe methods of use and proper methods of installation for permanent horizontal fall protection systems.